in this book the late prof yaacov bar siman tov argues that the failure of the israeli palestinian peace process so far has been mainly the result of the inability of both sides to reach an agreed formula for linking justice to peace the issues of justice and injustice are focused mainly on the outcomes of the 1947 1949 first arab israeli war and specifically in the creation of the palestinian refugee problem the conflicting historical narratives of the two sides regarding the question of responsibility for the injustice done to the palestinians turn the israeli palestinian conflict into a classic case of linking the issues of justice and peace yaacov bar siman tov maintains that the narratives of justice and injustice in the israeli palestinian conflict have proved to be formidable barriers to peace hence he recommends that justice should be compromised for the sake of peace the link between justice and peace is an important issue requiring both sides attention but given the wide and currently unbridgeable gap separating the two sides it should be postponed to the phase of reconciliation rather than being included in the process of conflict resolution the two state solution is the palestine israel and practical solution and as a first step for a just peace in this
