Jesus the Magician 2014-08-27 a twentieth century classic uncannily smart incredibly learned from the foreword by bart ehrman this book challenges traditional christian teaching about jesus while his followers may have seen him as a man from heaven preaching the good news and working miracles smith asserts that the truth about jesus is more interesting and rather unsettling the real jesus only barely glimpsed because of a campaign of disinformation obfuscation and censorship by religious authorities was not jesus the son of god in actuality he was jesus the magician smith marshals all the available evidence including but not limited to the gospels he succeeds in describing just what was said of jesus by outsiders those who did not believe him he deals in fascinating detail with the inevitable questions what was the nature of magic what did people at that time mean by the term magician who were the other magicians and how did their magic compare with jesus works what facts led to the general assumption that jesus practiced magic and most important was that assumption correct the ramifications of jesus the magician give new meaning to the word controversial this book recovers a vision of jesus that two thousand years of suppression and polemic could not erase and what may be the central point of the debate jesus the magician strips away the myths and legends that have obscured jesus the man who lived

Misquoting Jesus 2005-11-01 when world class biblical scholar bart ehrman first began to study the texts of the bible in their original languages he was startled to discover the multitude of mistakes and intentional alterations that had been made by earlier translators in misquoting jesus ehrman tells the story behind the mistakes and changes that ancient scribes made to the new testament and shows the great impact they had upon the bible we use today he frames his account with personal reflections on how his study of the greek manuscripts made him abandon his once ultraconservative views of the bible since the advent of the printing press and the accurate reproduction of texts most people have assumed that when they read the new testament they are reading an exact copy of jesus s words or saint paul s writings and yet for almost fifteen hundred years these manuscripts were hand copied by scribes who were deeply influenced by the cultural theological and political disputes of their day both mistakes and intentional changes abound in the surviving manuscripts making the original words difficult to reconstruct for the first time ehrman reveals where and why these changes were made and how scholars go about reconstructing the original words of the new testament as closely as possible ehrman makes the provocative case that many of our cherished biblical stories and widely held beliefs concerning the divinity of jesus the trinity and the divine origins of the bible itself stem from both intentional and accidental alterations by scribes alterations looking at it through jewish eyes using his in depth knowledge of the bible and ancient judaism dr brant pitre answers questions such as what was the passover like at the time of jesus what were the jewish hopes for the messiah what was jesus purpose in instituting the eucharist during the feast of passover and most important of all what did jesus mean when he said this is my body this is my blood to answer these questions pitre explores ancient jewish beliefs about the passover of the messiah the miraculous manna from heaven and the mysterious bread of the presence as he shows these three keys the passover the manna and the bread of the presence have the power to unlock the original meaning of the eucharistic words of jesus along the way pitre also explains how jesus united the last supper to his death on good friday and his resurrection on easter sunday inspiring and informative jesus and the jewish roots of the eucharist is a groundbreaking work that is sure to illuminate one of the greatest mysteries of the christian faith the mystery of jesus presence in the breaking of the bread

The Life and Kingdom of Jesus in Christian Souls 2013-10-12 according to the roman breviary saint john eudes is the author of devotion to both the sacred heart of jesus and the immaculate heart of mary his two works on these two devotions are classics however he is also a master to the spiritual life an unknown master many are familiar with the works of saint bonaventure saint alphonse ligouri and saint louis de montfort to name just three of the masters of the spiritual life and yet saint john eudes has a lot to contribute let us consider this from saint john eudes in this excellent work what truth can there be in the claim that we are christians and adore a crucified god a god agonizing and dying upon a cross a god who for love of us gives up so noble and excellent life a god who sacrifices himself for us every day before our eyes upon our altars for our salvation if we are not ready to sacrifice to him all that we hold dearest in the world and even life itself which in any case wonderful story of jesus the

belongs to him by all rights surely we are not christians if we are not in these dispositions therefore i say and this will immediately be clear to anyone who gives a little thought to the truths i have outlined that all christians ought to be martyrs if not in actual fact at least in intention and in will so true is this that if they are not martyrs of jesus christ they will be martyrs of satan choose whichever of the two you love more if you live under the tyranny of sin you will be a martyr to your self love and your passions and consequently a martyr to the devil but if you desire to be a martyr of jesus christ you must strive to live in the spirit of martyrdom what is the spirit of martyrdom it is a spirit that had five excellent attributes 1 it is the spirit of strength and constancy which fears only god and sin and cannot be shaken or overthrown either by promises or threats by persuasion or violence 2 it is the spirit of deepest humility which feels only horror for the vainglory and publicity of the world and loves contempt and humiliations 3 it is the spirit of self mistrust and of most firm confidence in jesus christ our lord our strength in whom all things can be done 4 it is the spirit of perfect detachment from the world and everything that is in the world those who are to sacrifice their lives to god must also sacrifice to him all else besides 5 it is the spirit of most burning love for our lord jesus christ who leads those animated by this spirit to do all and suffer all for love of him who dies and suffered all for them it so inflames them that for love of him they consider mortification and suffering to be a paradise of joys to be sought and desired while they avoid and detest the pleasures of this world as much as they would hell itself this is the spirit of martyrdom implore o lord who is the king of martyrs to fill you with this spirit pray to the queen of martyrs and all the martyrs too that they may obtain this spirit for you from the son of god by their holy prayers cultivate a particular devotion to the saintly martyrs make a point also of praying for all those who will have to suffer martyrdom in order that god may grant them the spirit and grace of martyrdom pray especially for those who will have to suffer the persecution of antichrist at the end of the world for it will be the most cruel and horrible of all persecutions finally strive to develop within yourself by imitation a perfect image of the lives of the holy martyrs and what is more the life of the king and the queen of martyrs jesus and mary so that they may make you worthy to resemble them in death

Speaking of Jesus 2011-07-01 some of us fear moments when we need to defend our theology some of us seek them out but we are seldom ready the way jesus seemed to be ready so how do we draw others to god in the midst of these ordinary conversations the way jesus did in speaking of jesus carl medearis draws on his experience of international reconciliation between muslims and christians to remind us of the heart of the matter jesus here he gives us tools stories and the foundation we need to move beyond us and them and simply talk about the one who changes it all as carl writes while others are explaining and defending various isms and ologies we re simply pointing people to our friend the one who uncovers and disarms who leads people right to himself the beginning and the end of the story a good story indeed

Luke's Presentation of Jesus 2004 this study uses composition criticism to consider everything that luke wrote about jesus jesus was a human being and a prophet yet luke wished to say much more he has a very extensive and developed portrayal of jesus as a saviour his roles as servant of yahweh and son of man play a real part in explaining a number of jesus experiences and actions including his passion jesus identification as the christ can be associated with the being son of god but each of these identifications has its own nuances luke 1 35 proves crucial for a correct understanding of son of god and guides the reader s comprehension of jesus identity the ot background of lord leads to a correct interpretation of this title when applied to jesus and luke willingly predicates similar things of god and of jesus

James the Brother of Jesus 2012 was james rather than peter the true spiritual heir to jesus in this profound and provocative work of scholarly detection eminent biblical scholar robert eisenman introduces a startling theory about the identity of james the brother of jesus who was almost entirely marginalized in the new testament drawing on suppressed early church texts and the revelations in the dead sea scrolls eisenman propounds in this groundbreaking exploration that james not peter was the real successor to the movement we now call christianity in an argument with enormous implications eisenmann identifies paul as deeply compromised by roman contacts james is presented as not simply a leader of christianity of his day but the popular jewish leader of his time whose death triggered the uprising against rome a fact that creative rewriting of early church documents has obscured

The Gospel According to Matthew 1999 the publication of the king james version of the bible translated between 1603 and 1611 coincided with an extraordinary flowering of english literature and is universally acknowledged as the greatest influence on english language literature in history now world class literary writers introduce the book of the king james bible in a series of beautifully designed small format volumes the introducers passionate provocative and personal engagements with the spirituality and the language of the text make the bible come alive as a stunning work of literature and remind us of its overwhelming contemporary relevance

Is Jesus Truly God? 2020-07-07 the question of jesus s divinity has been at the epicenter of theological discussion since the early church at the council of nicea in ad 325 the church fathers

A Lifetime of Verse in Praise of Jesus 2011-05-18 some two thousand years ago in a small province of the roman empire an obscure roman governor ordered the execution of a peasant leader it went virtually unnoticed at the time no official report of the event has survived and we would have no memory at all of it except for the efforts of a handful of followers of the condemned man those followers who kept that memory alive changed the course of history and the results of their efforts continue to reverberate to this day conventional interpretation says that the execution of jesus of nazareth came on the heels of a series illegal trials before a number of different tribunals and at the culmination of that series of trials a moral coward by the name of pontius pilate ordered jesus execution despite being satisfied that he was innocent revisionist interpretation says that there was no trial at all that pilate simply executed jesus because he was a nuisance and that jesus followers invented the story of his execution as a means of shifting the blame from the roman government to a group of people whom they despised the jews are the gospels good history or bad propaganda does a fair reading of the gospel accounts support either the conventional or the revisionist interpretation of the trial of jesus who if anyone should shoulder the blame for the crucifixion of jesus the case against christ seeks to answer these questions by treating the matter as a forensic death investigation and answering the questions as they might be answered by a prosecutor attempting to
